Yale Club again showed to advantage in the metropo lian Class B squash tensils championship tournament yesterday, winning ts third series at the expense of the Columbia Club. The Kill graduates made a clean sweep of their seven matches with the Columbia men, taking live of them in straight games. It was the second time this season that the falensians had won every match of a dial meet.

Alensians had won every match of a dual meet.

At the Crescent Athletic Club the home team defeated the Harvard Club is a score of a matches to 3. Six contests were divided evenly, but the eventh went to the Crescents by default, F. M. Blagden falling to appear for his scheduled tuss'e with M. M. Sterling. It was the second straight victory for the Crescents and the third defeat for Harvard Club.

Only three matches were ulayed in the series between D. K. E. Club and the Princeton Club on the former's court, the fraternity squad leading 2 to 1 at the cidse of play. Four matches remain to be decided to-day.

s preparing for the bout between Frankie Jerome and Jack Tracey, which is to be held Saturday night.

"This little fellow Jerome has a great following in the Bronx," said McArdle, "and his friends are betting that he will beat Tracey. The latter has plenty of backers, and it seems to be an even money proposition. However, it is against the rules of the commission to bet on any boxing bouts and I'm going to take precautions to see that the rule is lived up to in the club at least."

"Battling Wildeat" Nelson of Brooklyn will make his Harlem debut in another bout on the card. He will meet Jimmy Kelly of Harlem. Nelsonf they say, gets his nickname from his style of fighting. However, it is to be hoped he won't try to scratch.
